Sub: Non-transfer of Executive staff till completion of 1st membership verification process of Executives' Associations in BSNL-regarding Reference this office letter of even number dated 25th May, 2016 initiating the conduct of membership verification for election of a majority representative Association of Executive Employees in BSNL. Accordingly, it has been decided that outstation transfers of executive employees, except those who have taken absorption in Group 'A' capacity (other than those on promotion and own cost/request transfers which involve change of station), may be held in abeyance until further orders and/or till completion of the membership verification process.

2. However, the transfers involving change in posts (without change in the station of posting) would not come within the purview of this order.
3. These instructions shall come into force with immediate effect.
